Stephen F. Greenberg

Steve Greenberg has been with WSWG since 1981 and has steadily ascended into a leadership position within the firm and Savannah's legal community. His practice consists of a combination of real estate, business, and creditor bankruptcy work, and he effectively and successfully represents business concerns, lenders and individuals.

Mr. Greenberg's practice has earned him recognition from peer-review publications such as "The Best Lawyers in America" and "Super Lawyers," and his practice in the areas of commercial and residential real estate transactions, general business, creditor bankruptcy representation as well as real property foreclosure is based on fundamental principles such as providing personal attention to each of his clients, being attentive to details and responding promptly to his clients. During his career, Mr. Greenberg has earned his clients' ongoing trust by emphasizing the efficient resolution of matters in the best interest of his clients.

Mr. Greenberg has demonstrated a consistent commitment to the community by serving as president of Leadership Savannah, Voluntary Action Center, Jewish Educational Alliance and the Savannah Jaycees. Mr. Greenberg is also a member of Congregation Bnai Brith Jacob in Savannah and was a participant in Leadership Georgia in 1996. He served as a Commissioner for the Housing Authority of Savannah from 1992 to 1997 and 2004 to 2010. He is a recipient of the Outstanding Young Man of the Year Award for the Savannah Jaycees and also a recipient of the Distinguished Leadership Award for the National Association for Community Leadership. He has also been active with the United Way of the Coastal Empire, having served on the Board and acted as legal counsel during various terms. He is has also served as Vice-President of the Savannah Jewish Federation and President of the Savannah-Chatham County Public Schools Education for All Foundation.

Within the legal community, Mr. Greenberg has served on the Executive Committee of the Real Property Section of the State Bar of Georgia. He is also recipient of the Justice Robert E. Benhem Community Service Award given by the State Bar of Georgia and the 2012 John B. Miller Award given by the Savannah Bar Association for Service to the Community.
